Synopsis:

A little mouse loses her baby, but just as she starts looking for it, out of the rainforest looms a huge gorilla, so she starts running for her life. And so begins a chase that takes her all over the world: to China, Australia, North America, and even the Arctic! But when the gorilla finally catches up with her at the North Pole, it turns out that all he has been trying to do is return her baby to her!

'Help! Help!
He'll catch me!
He'll squash me and scratch me! He'll mince me and mash me. And crunch
me up for lunch!'

The mouse ran and ran, looking for her baby. Over the bridge, over the sea, all the way to China. But the gorilla
was never far behind . . .

'A roaring good read for tough over-twos . . .
not as scary as it sounds, but a book for overcoming fears.' SUNDAY TIMES
